KINKORA CONNECTION

Newsletter of the Rural Municipality of Kinkora and the Maple Leaf Senior Citizens' Club

MAPLE LEAF SENIORS

The Maple Leaf Seniors will hold their next meeting on Tuesday, February 8th, 2022 at Kinkora Place beginning at 1:30 pm. All members are welcome.

A big Thank You goes out to all who supported our club by purchasing tickets on our Thanksgiving Basket. The winners were: 1st Prize: Donald Mallet, 2nd Prize: Robert McKenna and 3rd Prize: Nick Cousins Thank you also to all those who sold tickets and contributed to the basket.

The Christmas Dinner for members of our Senior Citizen's Club will be held at Kinkora Place on Saturday, December 4th at 4:30 pm. Proof of double vaccination and ID will be required at the door.

We are very pleased to report that Michele Gallant, Personal Trainer Specialist, will resume her Chair and Balance Program at Kinkora Place beginning on Wednesday, November 17th at 11:00 am. Again, proof of vaccination and ID will be required.

SEWER FLUSHING

The municipality will be doing a sewer flushing/video inspection of a portion of municipal sewer lines the week of November 8-12. Please note that property owners are required to have backflow valves on their sewer lines. If no backflow valve is present, water may come up through your line. Although every effort will be made to ensure this does not happen, neither the municipality nor the contractor will be responsible if this does occur.
